RELIGIOUS TOLERANCE.

The Times of Saturday devotes a column-and-a-half in deprecation of what it is pleased to term the religious intolerance of the PRESS AND TRIBUNE. We deny the allegation in every particular—in its entirety and in detail. Freedom of conscience is a distinctive feature of the Republican creed and practice as contrasted with the doctrines and actions of the Democratic party; and to no one of its distinctive principles does the PRESS AND TRIBUNE more heartily subscribe than to this. In matters of religion it advocates the largest liberty; and not a little of the vigor with which it assails Sham Democracy is owing to its devotion to the principles of religious toleranee. It not only does not assail any man on account of his religious faith, but it stands ready at all times to defend the disciples of any creed from the intolerance of such papers as the Chicago Times, and of such parties as the Democratic party.

The attack upon this paper by the Times is based wholly upon the fact that it invariably speaks of the Catholic priesthood and Irish Catholics as being allied to the pro-slavery Democracy. The existence of such alliance is questioned by no one. Even the Times will not deny it. We are opposed to the Democratic party and to the extension and indefinite perpetuation of slavery, to which that party is devoted. To make that opposition practical and efficient we have to take facts as we find them, and deal with them earnestly and plainly. When, therefore, we find the entire priesthood of that sect, and its Irish adherents to a man, sanctioning and supporting every aggression of the Democratic party upon the settled policy of the government, in relation to slavery, and casting their votes as an unit at every election, whether Municipal, State, or National, it becomes our duty to take cognizance of the fact, to deduce such reflections as it seems to warrant, and to warn the country of the danger to be apprehended from a close alliance of a religious sect with a dominant political party. We regret that the facts are so, but we cannot and will not shrink from our duty by any false accusation of intolerance. It is not because these men are Catholics, but because their will is subject to a power which converts them into the blind and willing tools of pro-slavery Democracy, that we call upon our people not to let the political destinies of our city and State pass into their hands. Our course would be the same towards any Protestant sect, under the same circumstances, that it is towards the Catholics. We assail neither the priesthood nor the laity for their religious faith; our course is based simply upon the fact that in this country they are, everywhere and under all circumstances, active and efficient allies of Democracy and slavery.

But we propose carrying the war into Africa. The Times is guilty of what it falsely charges upon us. It sanctions an intolerance in religious matters which invades and violates every civil and political right of American citizens, denies to them freedom of speech, of the press and of the pulpit, closes the public mails to their use, confiscates or destroys their property, and imprisons, lynches or drives them with their families into an unwilling exile. There is a gentleman now in this city, a former resident of Illinois—the Rev. J. Scott Davis—who has just been driven from his pulpit and his home in Kentucky, because he believes slavery, and the Democratic party which seeks to extend and perpetuate it, are not divine institutions. He is here, an exile from his people and the home of his choice, for exercising freedom of speech and of conscience. Only a little while before his expulsion, Rev. J. G. Fee, and a portion of his congregation were ruthlessly driven out of Kentucky by the same pro-slavery Democracy. The Times is cognizant of these facts. It has no word of condemnation for this intolerance—for this terrible despotism of its party. On the contrary, it condemns and heaps the foulest abuse upon the exiles, and sanctions and sustains the party that perpetrates such outrages.

One year ago, this same pro-slavery Democracy dispersed the Texas Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, by mob violence, stopped Bishop Janes in the midst of a sermon on the Sabbath day, and ordered the Conference to disperse, on the penalty of falling into the hands of a mob excited with Democracy, pro-slavery and whisky. Did the Times ever condemn that act? Does it not continue to eulogise the Democratic party, as of old, and support it with as much zeal as before?

We have before us the Cynthiana (Ky.) News of recent date, from which we copy the following:

> The Maysville Eagle announces in an editorial that the "Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church will commence its session in Germantown on the 9th of March. Bishop Simpson will preside, and will preach on the following Sabbath. Everybody is cordially invited to attend."
> We have been instructed to say that if it be necessary, and that it is the wish of the people of Germantown, the "Cynthiana Independent Rifle Company" will visit that city and abate this nuisance. It will certainly be a shame to permit men with a record like that of Simpson & Co., to promulgate their sentiments in a place where they would not allow a man to live who entertained much milder sentiments for the South. We say to the people in that section of country—look out.
> We understand there are two churches of that character in the lower part of this county. We suggest this occasion as an excellent opportunity to secede from that Anti-Slavery Church, and join with their friends of the South.
> Will Kentuckians allow a set of men to get a foothold in their State, who announce that their God is an Anti-slavery God, and their Church an Anti-slavery Church?

Whether Bishop Simpson and the members of the Methodist Conference have been "abated" by the "Cynthiana Independent Company" or not, we have not yet learned; but the spirit of Democracy is plainly enough evinced in the above extract and by the expulsion of Fee and Davis. Nevertheless, the Times has no word of condemnation to offer. Its zeal for pro-slavery Democracy abates not a whit.

It is but a little while since a venerable Methodist clergyman was imprisoned in Western Virginia for believing that slavery is not a divine institution; and the Rev. Daniel Worth has been lying in a North Carolina jail all through these winter months for the same offence. The Times, instead of condemning the Democracy guilty of these outrages, continues to applaud them.

We might fill our paper with incidents of recent occurrence, all tending to prove the despotism exercised by Sham Democracy over the minds, actions and consciences of men, but let the above suffice. When the Times shall have uttered its unqualified condemnation of the acts of its party, which we have recited, and when it shall have proved its sincerity by withdrawing from the political organization which sanctions these high-handed outrages, the public will be better prepared to hear its strictures upon the assumed intolerance of the PRESS AND TRIBUNE. Until then it should remember that it lives in a glass habitation, and restrain its propensity to throw stones.

THE PRINTING CORRUPTION.

It was inquired of Mr. Haskin, in the House of Representatives, on Friday last, whether one of the Republican candidates for Printer to that body did not pledge himself to give a portion of the profits of the work to the Republican party. Mr. Haskin replied truly, that the person did make such a pledge, and that the pledge defeated him in the Republican caucus. It is in evidence, on the other hand, that Mr. Wendell, the Democratic printer to the Senate, the late proprietor of the Washington Union, and the jobber of the Post Office blanks, was bled by the Democratic party, to the tune of $100,000 for the support of mendicant newspapers and dilapidated politicians. Mr. Wendell has testified to these facts under oath, and has added that the ingratitude of his party, in electing Gen. G. Washington Bowman Senate printer this year, has left him penniless, with the largest printing establishment in the country lying idle on his hands. It is not our province to condole with Mr. Wendell. He is a man of much energy and sagacity, with just sufficient conscience to enable him to cope with the Democratic party leaders, and he ought to have known better than to have trusted the slave driving dynasty. Hard work, heavy blows and poor fare are the portion of those who serve them, and Wendell should not have supposed he was destined to be an exception to the rule.

One hundred thousand dollars extorted from one man in the short space of four years, for corruption purposes—that will do! The sums which have been wrung out of army and navy contractors, as the bonus for executive favors, which are now in a fair way of being brought to light, will doubtless amount to more than a million of dollars; and if there were any way of reaching the enormous assessments levied upon the small officials in the Departments at Washington, for the purpose of carrying elections and maintaining party organs, the aggregate would startle the country. We trust the investigations now on foot may be pushed to to the last dollar filched out of the Treasury to keep the breath of life in the Democratic party. Mr. Wendell's is perhaps an exaggerated case in the fact that he has come out of a long course of public service plucked of his last feather, but the number of those who have tasted his experience in kind if not in degree is to be counted by thousands. Was it not cool, in view of these facts, for Mr. Hindman, of Arkansas, to charge that a candidate for printer on the Republican side had offered to give a portion of the profits to the Republican Executive Committee—it being known to every man in Washington that the offer was refused on the instant and the candidate rejected.

IMMIGRATION.

The Commissioners of Emigration for the port of New York, have just published an interesting resume of their operations since the organization of the Board in 1847. Since that date, the number of immigrants landed at New York alone has been 2,566,845; who have paid a capitation tax of $4,942,766, all of which, with $5,000 in addition, has been expended in helping immigrants forward to their new homes. The largest number of arrivals was in 1854, when 319,223 were registered. Since that time the falling off has been so great that in 1858 and two months of 1859, the arrivals were but 157,911—of whom, fortunately for the cause of good government and pure religion, the greater part were of individuals of the Saxon race.

It is perhaps not profitable at this time to discuss all the causes which have led to this great decrease; but we may point to one as pertinent to the discussions in which the political parties of this country are engaged. We are told that in those districts in Europe, particularly in Norway, Sweden and Germany, from which the most valuable emigrants come, the fear of the future of this country consequent upon the alarming aspect of the Slavery question—the prospect of war as one of the results of Southern aggressions upon the free labor of the North—the feeling of insecurity for a Republic which permits the monstrous inhumanity involved in the buying and selling of men—has stifled the desire for removal to America, and only those who have friends here, or those whose better sources of information enable them to comprehend the true condition of the country, are now looking this way for an escape from the hardships and disabilities of continental life. The real dangers which the country must face have been so magnified by journals in the interest of despotism, that all over Europe, even in circles otherwise well informed, the belief that the government cannot last five years more, has become universal, and every unexpected event of a political character is made to prove that the prognostications of war are correct. With the election of a Republican President and the passage of the Homestead bill—both events being guarantees of the security of our political system and of safety of foreigners who come among us—the flow of emigrants in this direction will doubtless be largely increased. The returning prosperity of the country in its industrial and commercial aspects, and the now seeming certainty that Europe will be the theatre of a long and bloody war in which all great powers will be engaged—a contest approaching in the grandeur of its proportions the struggles of the Napoleonic era—will swell the tide, and but a few years will elapse before it will be stronger than ever before. To us of the West, where millions of acres of soil that have never felt the plow wait cultivation, and where labor is the chief want, this matter is one of special interest; and our readers will hope that our anticipations may be realized. There is room for all—there is work for all.

A CAT IN THE MEAL.

It is said, though we do not vouch for the truth of the report, that, after the Mexican Treaty had been under discussion three or four days in the Senate, a discovery was made that it virtually established free trade with the Mexican Republic, at least in a long list of articles, which, imported from other countries, are dutiable to the extent of 10 to 30 per cent. ad valorem. Now as we have treaties with France and England in which guarantees are inserted that their commerce shall be placed on a footing of equality with the most "favored nations," the ratification of the bargain would have been the opening of an era of free trade with both these nations—a measure for which our revenue system is not prepared. It is said, further, that this free trade provision was not the result of any supposed advantage to grow out of unrestricted commerce with our neighboring Republic; but a deep design on the part of the Democracy whereby they hoped to do by indirection what they knew would be refused if asked in terms, of Congress or the people.

This discovery, or something else equally as potent, is supposed to have killed the treaty so dead that there is no hope of its resurrection. But as the discussion is in Executive session, within closed doors, the public will not be fully informed of the exact state of the case until the injunction to secrecy is removed. We give the rumors for what they are worth.

The New York and Erie R. R.

A correspondent writing from New York says that the business of this great thoroughfare is decidedly improving under the new management. "Having had occasion to pass over its entire length recently, I was surprised both by the number of passengers whom I found taking this route, and by the regularity and speed at which the trains were run. The last time I went from Dunkirk to New York—two years ago this month—we (seven through passengers) were nearly two days on the road. This time, however, we started from the Western terminus, with two full cars, and ran through by the stopwatch the whole distance. Everything seems to have been renovated and to be governed by a master-hand. I look forward to a new day of prosperity for this much-abused but noble thoroughfare, as soon as business shall have revived in the great West."

The Foolishness of the Wise.

The Richmond Dispatch says that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company will soon present a claim of $18,000 against the State of Virginia for the transportation of troops to and from Harper's Ferry. Commenting on that farce, got up for the benefit of Governor Wise, the Lynchburg Virginian observes:

"We have understood, furthermore, that the whole appropriation of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars has been exhausted, whilst the volunteers have not all been paid! It need, therefore, occasion no surprise if Governor Wise's folly in the Brown affair costs the State two hundred thousand dollars. And all this for the satisfaction of 'training his boys,' when he did not anticipate the rescue of John Brown!"

"With all the revelations that subsequent events have brought to light, we do not hesitate to say that there never was a more wanton and wicked attempt to make capital out of an event, sad enough in itself, than has been evinced in the conduct of Gov. Wise throughout this entire affair.

"The whole country was kept in a tempest of excitement, and sectional animosities were stimulated to the highest pitch; troops were marched and counter-marched, brought home, and straightway ordered off again, for no necessity whatever."

THE RIVER.—The ice has been running for several days in the Mississippi, and it is probably loose all the way up to the lake. The river is rising here.—Galena Advertiser.

Organization of a Swedish Republican Club in Galesburg.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

GALESBURG, March 8th, 1860.

The Swedish Republicans of Galesburg met last Tuesday evening to organize themselves into a Republican Club. The meeting was called to order by Peter L. Hawkinson, and on motion he was called to the Chair, and C. Arosenius appointed Secretary.

C. Arosenius opened the proceedings, and was followed by the Chairman, P. Hawkinson, Jr., J. Peterson and others, who, in able and telling speeches, explained the object and necessities of such an organization. It was then unanimously resolved that such a Club be formed, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:—Peter L. Hawkinson, President; L. Ahnberg and J. A. Johnson, Vice Presidents; C. Arosenius, Secretary; L. M. Peterson, Treasurer; and the following were elected an Executive Committee:—J. Peterson, L. N. Hohnberg, O. Pierson, P. Hawkinson, Jr., Thos. Gibson, A. Burgquvist, P. A. Sjoberg, C. E. Lundstrom.

On motion a committee to draw up resolutions was appointed, consisting of the following gentlemen:—L. M. Peterson, A. Burgquvist, L. Ahnberg, P. L. Hawkinson and C. Arosenius.

The Committee reported as follows:

WHEREAS, We Swedes in Galesburg are now assembled, and have organized an Independent Republican Club in this city in order to unite our strength, so that we may be more able to fight for Freedom and Liberty, and work together with the Republican party, therefore be it

Resolved, That as this year is the year when the great battle is to be fought between freedom and slavery we, as children of the free Swedish soil, range ourselves in the ranks where freedom, enlightenment and humanity are the watchwords.

Resolved, That in view of the fraud and corruption of the Administration in Washington, we will with all our strength work for the victory of the Republican party and for the election of a Republican President.

Resolved, That as we are always willing to follow the voice of liberty we will stand prepared at our State and our City election to work under the Banner of the Republican party.

The above resolutions were read and unanimously adopted, and on motion it was resolved that the minutes of the proceedings be published in the American and Swedish Republican papers printed in this city, and in the PRESS AND TRIBUNE and Hemlandet of Chicago.

The meeting was addressed further by A. Sjoberg, L. N. Hohnberg, C. E. Lundstrom and others, who in pointing to facts confirmed the general prevailing enthusiasm for the Republican principles. On motion the club was adjourned to meet on Friday evening, March 17th.

P. L. HAWKINSON, President.

Another Kansas Difficulty.

A difficulty has grown out of Gov. Robinson's testimony before the Senate Harper's Ferry Committee. It will be remembered that Gov. R., whether intentionally or not, gave a personal turn to his evidence, which has been an occasion of offence to Mr. W. A. Phillips and Gen. Jim Lane. A public meeting was held at Lawrence on the 27th ult. to consider the matter. Mr. Phillips spoke first, strongly reprimanding Robinson for retailing slanders at second hand against himself. Lane followed in a denunciatory strain. Robinson replied rather bitterly to both. On the following day Lane wrote the following letter to the Leavenworth Herald:

LAWRENCE, Feb. 28th, 1860.

EDITOR LEAVENWORTH HERALD:—Your paper of to-day comes teeming with assaults upon the old Free State party of Kansas, predicated upon the testimony of Charles Robinson, recently given before the Senate Harper's Ferry Investigating Committee. As a member of that glorious old party, I do solemnly declare that the charges contained in said Robinson's testimony before said Committee are false in whole and in part, whether stated upon his own, or the authority of others. I do charge that the said Robinson well knew their falsity when he took upon himself the obligations of an oath. I do further charge that in the time and place selected for making that assault, the said Robinson was guilty of cowardly assassination of that cause and party to which he is indebted for his present position—no opportunity being given to the accused for cross examination, explanation or defense. For myself I am responsible, therefore I do arraign Charles Robinson before the country, and do denounce him as the corrupt defamer and cowardly assassin of his old friend,

J. H. LANE.

"Worse than the Wilmot Proviso."

[From the Memphis Avalanche.]

The mean and damnable doctrine of Squatter Sovereignty has now but few advocates. A dogma that tolerates the absurdity of permitting a few Abolition vagabonds and thieves to exclude the property of the slave owner from territory won by the common blood and treasure of the nation, is so monstrous and revolting that the American people are turning from it with unspeakable loathing and disgust. An ardent admiration for Stephen A. Douglas, and a confidence in his patriotism and statesmanship, caused many to praise and glorify his name while he was holding to their unsuspicious lips the deadly poison distilled in a heart surcharged with all that is despicable. This misplaced confidence in Douglas, together with his specious sophistry, induced many good men to look with forbearance on his absurd vagary. But now they consider it like the veil of the terrible Mokannah, bright and glittering, and fascinating, but hiding beneath its treacherous folds the hideous features of a fiend. For thirteen years the Democracy have been warring upon the Wilmot Proviso, and having strangled that iniquitous monster, a measure still more odious must not be substituted in its stead. There is not the toss of a copper's difference between the Wilmot Proviso and Squatter Sovereignty, for by the former the South was to be kept out of the Territorial domain by direct Congressional interference; by the latter the same end is to be reached quite as effectually by indirect or Territorial action or non-action, as may be most convenient, or as the exigencies of each case may demand. By the one, we are to be throttled and robbed—by the other, chloroformed and swindled. Of the two methods we prefer the former. There is, at least, an air of ruffian manliness about it which contrasts favorably with the pettifogging and demagogueism of the new contrivance. We have more respect for the bold murderer who shows his dagger and proclaims his purposes, than for the sneaking assassin who tortures and kills while pretending to save. We have more respect for the robber who openly proclaims that plunder is his trade, than for the rogue who, under the garb of friendship, steals that which he pretends to be guarding and defending. Beelzebub before Judas forever.

Sale of Helper's Book.

[From the N. Y. Herald.]

We learn that the number of Helper's Impending crisis distributed up to the present time is about 145,000 copies, which includes both the fifty cent paper cover edition and the one dollar edition. Its publisher expects, however, to sell as many more before November, and that in this manner its circulation will exceed even that of Mrs. Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin." A majority of the orders for the book have come from New York and New England, and the number of copies sold in both the latter localities far exceeds the number sold in all the other States combined. Immense quantities of the book have been sent to Philadelphia and Boston, and the orders from those cities are still pouring in at a rate that has diminished but little since their commencement. In the West, the demand for the work was not equal to the expectations of the publisher. He attributes this to a scarcity of money there, owing to the winter and hard times, but has hopes when summer returns and work is plenty, that the sale of the book will be largely increased, aided, as it must be, by the excitement attendent upon the Presidential campaign. About two thousand orders from the South have also been filled; but the publisher thinks that those who purchased the book did so more through curiosity to see it than from any other motive. The book has been a decided pecuniary success to all connected with it, and in more ways than one; for not only has it been a most lucrative speculation by itself, but it has also increased the sale of many other works—some of them of a like nature—issued by the same publisher. When the office of publication in this city was first made known through the columns of the Herald, the number of copies retailed singly at the counter averaged one hundred and fifty per day, and this quantity only decreased when the trade orders began to come in.

Clerical Impostor.

For some days there has been a man in this city, giving his name as Thos. J. Tormey, who, under the assumed cloak of the priesthood, has managed to levy extensive contributions upon charitable citizens. He professed to be a Monk from Ireland, traveling in aid of the project of building a church or monastery in that country. He was provided with a great number of recommendatory letters from various Catholic dignitaries, all of which appear to have been written without the consent or knowledge of the gentlemen whose names were attached to them. On his appearance in St. Louis he had the boldness to make his business known to Archbishop Kenrick, whose quick eye at once detected the fraudulent character of his visitor's pretenses, and who, therefore, very unequivocally refused to recognize him. Notwithstanding this rebuff, the impostor went about from place to place, still stealing "the livery of heaven to serve the devil in," and managed to collect a large sum. The Police were duly informed of what was going on, and officers Barry and Quigley detailed to arrest the charlatan. While they were in search of him, Tormey called at the residence of Capt. Kick to solicit assistance in his highly benevolent undertaking, not knowing that he was thus placing himself within the grasp of the commanding officer of the Day Police. Capt. Kick very gravely looked over some of the hypocritical gentleman's forged documents, and informed him that he was just the person he was desirous to see, whereupon, without further ceremony, he marched him down to the Police Office. An inventory was then taken of the prisoner's personal effects, revealing that he had about him no less than $1,614, sewed up in bags, of gold. He has also papers purporting to show that he had forwarded £740 to Ireland. Father Ryan and Father Henry were sent for, who had no difficulty in determining that the professed Monk was a quack and a cheat. He is now in safe hands, and will be given an opportunity to make good his claims to the priesthood.—St. Louis Republican.

DEATH OF AN EX-GOVERNOR OF MAINE.—On Saturday last, Hon. Samuel E. Smith died suddenly at Wiscasset, of an affection of the heart, at the age of 73 years. He was formerly Judge of the Common Pleas Court, and afterwards Governor of Maine for two or three years subsequent to 1830.—Portland Advertiser, 7th.

Carstang vs. Shaw.—The Great Breach-of-Promise Case.

The second trial of the great breach-of-promise case in St. Louis, in which the plaintiff formerly recovered a verdict of $100,000—the full amount of damages claimed—has commenced. The original petition of Effie Catherine Carstang, setting forth the breach of promise of marriage, was filed in the St. Louis Court of Common Pleas, July 19th, 1858. The verdict was rendered on the 2d of June, 1859. A new trial was granted on the 28th of the same month. Immediately the defendant commenced hunting up testimony against the plaintiff, and seldom has the life of a woman from childhood up, been more strictly investigated by the activity of lawyers than in the present proceeding. Special commissions were issued to take testimony in Iowa, Illinois, South Carolina, Massachusetts, Ohio and elsewhere. The second trial was fixed for the 9th of January, but by agreement of counsel, the case was postponed till the 5th of March. It was postponed twice last week—first from Monday to Wednesday, and second from Wednesday to Friday.

The St. Louis Democrat thus pictures the parties to the suit:

THE DEFENDANT, HENRY SHAW.

The defendant, Henry Shaw, has been a resident of St. Louis for forty-one years. He was formerly a merchant, and acquiring great wealth retired from business, as long ago as 1841. Subsequently he went to Europe and traveled extensively on the continent, spending several months in Italy observing the arts and artists of that country. From early youth botany has been his favorite study, and while in Europe Mr. Shaw improved every opportunity to gather information, or profit from the experience of others on this subject. In personal appearance Mr. Shaw is of medium height, hearty complexion, rather sharp in features, with blue eyes and possessed of great suavity of manner; in fact one of the politest men of St. Louis. His age is between fifty and sixty, his hair tinged with gray. His wealth is variously estimated between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000. On the corner of Seventh and Locust streets his city residence forms quite an ornament to that locality. It is a three story brick building, with a wing, in shape of an L, built in rather a quaint style of architecture, and has a carriage entrance on Locust street. About ten years ago Mr. Shaw became possessor of a tract of land, 600 acres in extent, situated in a southwesterly direction from the Court House, on the old Manchester road. At that time it was a barren prairie, but the wealth of the proprietor enabled him to transform the wilderness into a comparative Eden.

THE PLAINTIFF, EFFIE CATHERINE CARSTANG.

The plaintiff, Miss Effie Catherine Carstang, has lived in comparative obscurity till the commencement of the present proceedings. She came to this city in the year 1854, and has resided since on Fifth street, between Franklin avenue and Morgan, with Mrs. Seaman, her sister. Her acquaintance with Mr. Shaw commenced during the year 1856, and the promise to marry is alleged to have been given in November, 1856. In personal appearance Miss Carstang is rather tall in figure and withal graceful, has dark hair, brilliant eyes, blonde complexion, and a firmness of feature indicating the decision of character which has marked her participation in the present suit since its inception. We should judge the lady to be on the shady side of thirty, and not unattractive in point of personal beauty. She has maintained a remarkable perseverance throughout the whole trial, and accompanied her counsel personally to New York and other places, gathering testimony in her own vindication. The attempt to compel her to give bonds for payment of the costs was unsuccessful, the motion therefor having been denied by Judge Reber. Pending this matter, Miss Carstang proved the ownership of property reputed to be worth about $3,000, consisting of promissory notes secured by a mortgage on land on the Southwest Branch of the Pacific railroad.

THE ATTORNEYS.

The array of legal talent on both sides in this case constitutes one of its features. First, we have our distinguished fellow-citizen, Hon. Edward Bates, the leading counsel for the defense—associated with Ex-Judge Lackland, of the Circuit Court, Ex-Recorder Cady, J. R. Shepley and Samuel Glover. These gentlemen combine every shade of legal ability that can possibly do service to the defendant. The interests of the plaintiff are likewise confided to able hands. Maj. Uriel Wright, one of our most gifted speakers and orators, is the chief counsel. He is assisted by Luther M. Shreve, Wm. Holmes and Mr. Boyce, and as in the last trial, the forensic display in the present proceeding will doubtless be of a high order.

NEW TESTIMONY.

The testimony brought to the city through the several commissions issued at various times within the last eight months makes a bulk sufficient to fill an ordinary champagne basket.

The list of new witnesses examined embraces the names of seventy-five persons in the State of New York, chiefly residents of Brooklyn; twenty-five in Charleston, South Carolina, (including Col. Memminger, envoy extraordinary to the Virginia Legislature,) and a number in Illinois, Iowa, Ohio, and Massachusetts.

Deaths of Distinguished Individuals.

MAJOR DONALD FRAZER, UNITED STATES ARMY.

It again becomes our duty to announce the departure of another of those brave old soldiers who, having faithfully served their country in her hour of peril, are now dropping quietly away from among men.

We have to-day to record the death of Major Donald Frazer, a distinguished officer of the United States army in the war 1812, which took place on Monday, the 5th inst., at his residence in Brooklyn.

Major Frazer was born in this city in April, 1791, in the old house in Williams street, near the corner of Spruce—one of the few relics still standing in our city which call to mind the troublous times of the Revolution—and was, consequently, at the time of his death, sixty-nine years of age. Inheriting the patriotic spirit of his father, who was an officer in the War of Independence, he applied in 1812, when a mere stripling, for a lieutenant's commission in the army, which he obtained, and was forthwith ordered for duty to the Northern line. In this service he was employed throughout the war, sharing in many of the battles fought on the Niagara frontier, and coming out of every action covered with wounds and glory. At the battle of Little York he distinguished himself as the aid of the lamented Gen. Pike, who was killed almost by his side, and who had previously committed to his care the affecting letter recorded in history which was to be delivered, if he fell, to his widow. She afterwards presented to Major Frazer the identical sword which her husband was wielding when he died.

His worth and gallantry procured him active employment, and, wherever stationed, commanding Generals sought to attach him to their military suites. At Stony Creek he was the aid of Gen. Chandler, and was wounded. At the memorable sortie at Fort Erie he was the aid of Gen. Porter, and was also severely wounded; in fact, he was wounded so often that his fellow officers used to say of him, "If a bullet was flying anywhere, Donald Frazer would be sure to catch it." He was also at the capture of Fort George, and several other engagements. As a partisan officer he is said to have had no superior. Brave almost to rashness, he mingled in the thickest of the fight, and was always at the head of the forlorn hope. The incident is related of him as illustrating the unselfishness of his character, that after the affair at Fort Erie, when the surgeon approached to dress a severe wound in his leg, though exhausted by the loss of blood, he refused to be waited upon until the injured soldiers had first received the surgical attentions they required. On pressing upon him the necessity of dressing his own wounds without delay, his generous reply to the surgeon was—"No, the lives of the wounded soldiers shall not be jeopardized by the loss of time spent upon me. Go, and do not return until all the soldiers have been attended to."

His health being much impaired by the arduous services during the war, he availed himself of an appointment as Consul to St. Croix, where he remained two years, and returned in a measure restored. Subsequently he was appointed Secretary to the Commission for settling the boundaries between the United States and Great Britain, and since then has performed the duties of various offices to which he was at various times assigned by our government. In 1836, as a manifestation of the opinion entertained of his private worth as a man, and gallant conduct as a soldier, a number of his friends presented him with a sword, the presentation taking place in the City Hall, through the late Hon. Wm. L. Marcy, then Governor of the State.

COMMODORE GEISINGER, U. S. N.

Commodore David Geisinger, of the United States Navy, died at his residence in Philadelphia on the 5th inst. He was in his seventieth year, and was among the oldest officers of the navy. His commission as Captain was dated May 24, 1838. In the war of 1812 he was an active participant, and was on board the Wasp during her cruise on the English coast in 1814. Upon the capture of the Atalanta by the Wasp, Mr. Geisinger was put in command of her, and to this circumstance he owed his life, for the Wasp was never heard of afterwards. Commodore Geisinger was for many years stationed at the Naval Asylum in Philadelphia. His rank was seventh among the Captains of the Reserved List.—New York Herald.

Fire at Oxford, Iowa—Three Children Perish in the Flames.

[From the Oskaloosa (Iowa) Herald.]

A painful and melancholy occurrence took place in Oxford, in this county, on Friday evening, the 2d inst. The dwelling of Mr. Spencer De Witt took fire between seven and eight o'clock in the evening, while he and his wife were absent at church. The house was burned to the ground, and three children—two girls, one aged nine, the other three, and a boy aged five—perished in the flames. It is supposed the fire originated from the stove-pipe. The wind was blowing furiously at the time. No one reached the house until it was enveloped in flames. A voice, supposed to be that of the older girl, was heard once crying "mercy." All efforts to rescue the unfortunate children were fruitless. When the fire had burned down some, the bodies of the children could be seen in the ashes of the bed, showing that they had retired, and were probably asleep when the fire commenced. Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt have only one child left, a babe. In this heart-rending and overwhelming calamity they will have the sincere sympathy of all who hear of their sad bereavement. The house was part frame and part log, and was rapidly consumed.

DEATH OF AN ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The Bangor Whig of yesterday informs us of the death of Hon. George W. Ingersoll, Attorney General of the State, which took place on Monday morning, after an illness of several weeks. His age was 57.—Portland Advertiser, 7th.

WESTERN NEWS ITEMS.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Thursday morning Mr. Pleasant Laing, a well known citizen of Pekin, Ill., in company with two other gentlemen, took a skiff and their guns, and went down the river about three miles on a hunting excursion. Mr. Laing had a double barreled gun, one barrel of which he discharged and commenced reloading, when the other barrel by some means was discharged, and the entire contents lodged in his body. He merely exclaimed, "I am shot," and before his companions could get to him he was dead. Mr. Laing was universally esteemed by his fellow citizens of Pekin, and his untimely death has cast a deep gloom over that town.

—The Indian Mill Creek Salt Company, was organized in Grand Rapids March the 6th. Its capital stock is $30,000, $6,000 of which has been paid in. The shares are divided into $25 each, making 1,200 in all. The Enquirer says the whole number of shares will be kept in the hands of the originators of the movement, who are as follows: Messrs. James H. McKee, John Ball, Luther Colby and David P. Clay. John Ball was chosen President, and James H. McKee Secretary and Treasurer. This Company owns 68 acres of land, lying near the railroad bridge, on the West side of the river, on which they expect to commence operations as soon as practicable.

—The Grand Rapids Eagle, of the 7th, says that the river between the Haven and there is free of ice, and that the river steamer Michigan will commence running on Monday next. The river is very high. The water is two feet deep in the saloon of the Barnard House.

—There are now confined in the Michigan State Prison 596 convicts, and the cell accommodations are only sufficient for 520. Consequently many of them have to be provided with lodging in the corridors, and in other portions of the prison.

—The Corunna (Mich.) Journal states that the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway has procured the right of way for building a branch railroad from the depot at that place to the coal mine of Hurlbut & McArthur, about one mile north of the village. The Detroit and Milwaukee Railway Company opened the mine last summer, and the qualities of the coal exceeded their most sanguine expectations. The working of these mines will afford employment for a large number of laborers, and add greatly to the enterprise of our already prosperous village.

MALICIOUS ATTEMPT TO DESTROY A RAILROAD TRAIN.—On Monday noon last the engineer of the western bound mail train, when near Ottawa Lake, on the Southern Road, discovered a rail lying across the track, but not in time to stop his train entirely before reaching it. No serious damage resulted. A Frenchman of that locality has been arrested for the offense, examined in Monroe, and will be—possibly has been by this time—brought here to answer before the U. S. District Court, to the charge of obstructing the U. S. mail. We understand that some men in the vicinity saw him, or some one supposed to be him, place the rail across the track, and that a little girl saw him, not long before, attempting to break the lock of a switch.—Detroit Advertiser.

—The Iowa Legislature has abolished the useless office of Desmoines River Improvement Commissioner. The salary was $1,200 and no duties to perform.

—An important arrest of counterfeiters was made at Burlington (Iowa) last Monday morning. The names of the counterfeiters as given in the Hawkeye, are Levi Hilligon and John Ayres. They had in their possession a complete apparatus for the manufacture of bogus coin. Hilligon was arrested on board the steamboat Northerner, and Ayres at the establishment of C. Baker, on Front street. The kit of tools was found in the latter's bed. The tools were found contained in a small pine box, marked "Assorted Candies," and consisted of dies, plates, stamps, etc., etc., manufactured of the best hardened steel and capable of turning out all grades of silver coin from a five cent piece to a dollar. It also contained the material for their manufacture. Ayres had also in his possession a large bunch of assorted keys which could be made to open almost any door. The fellows were lodged in jail to await their trial.

THE NEW INDIANA PENITENTIARY.—The Indiana State Sentinel, says that "the new penitentiary has been located by the Commissioners at Michigan City, and the location has been approved by the Governor. We understand that a site comprising one hundred acres, eligibly situated, has been offered to the Commissioners for $4,500. The Commissioners left yesterday for Michigan City to make the purchase of the site and to conclude arrangements for the construction of the prison. Early in the season a large number of the prisoners in the Jeffersonville prison will be transferred, and employed in the erection of the new prison."

☞ The Vincennes (Ind.) Gazette says that a petition is under consideration by the County Board of Knox to permit the formation of a new county out of a part of that, and some two or three adjoining counties. The portion of Knox desired embraces the whole of Vigo, and a portion of Washington and Widner townships. The Gazette thinks the scheme is likely to succeed.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT—THE SCOUNDREL ARRESTED.—On Thursday night last, the engine, tender and baggage car of the 11:20 express train, on the Michigan Central Road, was thrown off the track about half a mile east of Dowagiac, by running over two old ties that had been put across the track. The train was thrown off at the first road crossing east of this place, where the road runs through a high embankment on each side, into which the engine buried itself, and thus sustained but slight injury. The tender was broken up considerably, and the baggage car had one end broken out. No one was seriously injured, and but one person slightly. On Friday the officers arrested a drunken Irishman named William Smith, whom many of our readers will recollect as having had his arm cut off by the cars, while drunk about a year since, and brought him before Justice Bowling for examination charged with having placed the ties upon the track. It appears that Smith has lately come to the conclusion that the Railroad Company should pay him about $500 for the loss of his arm, and threatening the Company with all kinds of ruin unless his demands were complied with. But little heed was paid to these threats, as Smith was more or less intoxicated when he made them. He was sent to Cassapolis to await his trial at the next term of the Circuit Court.—Dowagiac Republican.

—Silas Smith, late County Treasurer of Floyd county, Iowa, has left for parts unknown, taking with him nearly $3,000 belonging to the county, and the carriage, buffalo robes, &c., of one of his neighbors. His bondsmen are looking for property to secure them.

—On Saturday, the 3d inst., Mr. A. N. Gaston, of Richland, Wis, was fatally injured by the fall of a tree. At first it was thought that he would recover, but on Sunday evening he expired. He was riding on horseback at the time, through the forest north of the town. At the time the wind was blowing almost a hurricane, as it did the whole day on the 3d.

MISCELLANEOUS.

MRS. CROCKETT, the widow of Col. Crocket, who fell at the Alamo, says the Texas Jeffersonian, lately died in her 74th year, in Johnson county, Texas, of apoplexy.

A certain Irish attorney says:—"No printer should publish a death, unless apprised of the fact by the party deceased."

MR. ALEXANDER CUMMINGS, the original proprietor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, announces his withdrawal from the establishment, after having been connected with it for thirteen years.

M. RANKE, author of the well-known "History of the Popes" and other historical works, has just been elected a foreign associate of the French Academy of Moral and Political Sciences.

IN a recent sermon upon the training of children, Henry Ward Beecher gave the following stern advice to parents: "Never strike a child upon the head. Providence has supplied other and more appropriate places for punishment."

MRS. CYNTHIA P. CLAPP, of Hartford, Connecticut, says the Courant of the 28th, has brought suit against Mr. J. L. Prosser, of that city, for breach of the marriage contract. Mrs. Clapp assesses her damages at $25,000. It is said that Prosser is worth about $100,000, and is able to pay the claim if a jury think it worth the money.

At Cleveland, last week, says the Herald, a young woman was taken ill, and after a few days of suffering, to all appearance died. A few hours after one of the females of the household entered the chamber to commence the work of "laying out," when her piercing screams alarmed those outside. Hastening to the spot, they found her lying upon the floor in a fainting fit, while the supposed corpse was sitting up in bed. The defunct is now in a fair way to recover.

The Dutch Minister at Constantinople, Count Van Zuglen, lately had a narrow escape from being murdered in that city, in open day, in the street of Pera. A number of carriages got crowded together in a narrow part of the street, and among others two carriages containing ladies of the seraglio, attended by an armed eunuch. While things were in this condition the Count's carriage came up, and in order to get through the crowd was obliged to get close to the carriage of the seraglio. Immediately the eunuch drew his sabre and aimed a blow at the Minister, which would have severed his head had he not warded it off with his cane. The negro was instantly disarmed by the bystanders and pretty roughly handled, and the carriages were obliged to escape at full speed, to avoid some probable and unpleasant consequences.

GOOD LIVING IN THE WEST INDIES.—A recent letter from a gentleman at Nassau, in the West Indies, thus describes the cuisine of his hostess: "When she does not give us turtle soup, she gives us ochra, and when she does not give us banana fritters, she gives us cocoanut puddings. The fish, which come twice a day to table, were, an hour before, kicking in the beautifully clear sea water. We have fried plantains to our hominy, and even if there were nothing else to be had, I could live contentedly enough on the fruits and finger-glasses scented one day with the fresh leaf of the lime, and the next with one of the pimento. Indeed, on the delicious, fragrant sea air, I could manage to exist almost as well as the turtle. So you see this island is what the Chinese call a little heaven, only that by far the greater number of the saints are black."

SETTLEMENT OF THE JUDAH DIVORCE CASE AT VINCENNES.—As we stated in our last, Mrs. Judah was granted a divorce from her husband, Samuel Judah, Esq., and by agreement of counsel, (concurred in by Judge Burke,) it was decided to give the wife the entire ownership and control of the home farm, including stock, furniture, &c., and the absolute right to all the Indianapolis property—paying Judah sixty per cent. of the net profits of the lot on which he has erected a block of buildings, and paying all indebtedness thereon. The value of this property is about $50,000. Mrs. J. also gets all the city property, including Lot No. 19 and one-third of Scott's block. The Court gave the mother exclusive jurisdiction of the minor children.—Vincennes (Ind.) Sun, March 5.

Freight on the Illinois Central Railroad.

[From the N. Y. Times.]

The Illinois Central Company have received the following from the Superintendent in Illinois, in regard to the traffic of the line, which compares favorably with the last year before the panic:

"Freight tends southward, and the large amount of freight on the river at various points leave to us at Cairo limited means to carry off our freight, which accumulates at that point. We have for the past two weeks been crowded at Cairo, sometimes with 2,500 tons of freight in cars on the track, without boats to take it, and to-day the demand for Cairo freight is greater than can be accommodated with river transportation, hence it will be impossible to increase earnings if all the trade continues, as at this time, southward. In January there were forwarded 483,764 bushels Grain, 10,689 bbls. Provisions, 3,908 bbls. Whisky; received 2,477 hhds. Sugar and 1,358 bbls. Sugar and Molasses. The freight earnings in January were $111,078; in January, 1859, $63,250.57; in February, $113,985.50; in February 1858, $60,844.67."

WAKING A SNAKE.—The Petersburgh (Pa.) Express has the following: "At market, yesterday morning, a mild, good-natured old lady, with gold specs, and dressed in tidy apparel, was inspecting various vegetable products, and finally coming to a pile of cabbages, held one close to her face, and gave it a critical snuff or two with her queer and amiable nose. As she did so, a small green snake, waked from his repose among the leaves of the cabbage, peeked out his head, and gave the lady a tender kiss upon the lips. His impudent snakeship then proceeded to render himself comfortable in the bosom of the unsuspecting dame, and had stretched his long, almost transparent body half way around her neck, before she was aware of his presence, when she let fall her cabbage and her basket of butter and eggs, and screamed with fright, but being a lady of nerve withal, she grasped the harmless and beautiful little intruder and pressed him to death in her hands. The snake was about half an inch in diameter and eighteen inches long, and was one of the most beautiful of its species. Its eyes were of a bright ruby color, its form graceful and slender, and its color that of the purest emerald, and but for the association of the name 'snakes' with the little fellow, it might be considered one of the most charming members of the animal creation."

CATTLE DISTEMPER IN MASSACHUSETTS.—Great mortality prevails among the cattle in the vicinity of Brookfield, Mass. From the number of deaths among the stock it was at first said that poisoners had been at work, but examination has revealed that the murrain, or something very like it, has broken out. Post mortem examinations made by Dr. Dodd exhibited the chest filled with a serum of a straw color, portions of which were coagulated, forming a colorless albumen. The lungs were very much compressed. One portion had a gritty surface, and sank when placed in water. In some of the animals no lungs at all could be found, while in one the lungs were expanded so as to fill the entire chest.

SOYER'S SULTANA SAUCE,
For Hot and Cold Dishes of all kinds. This most delicious and appetising sauce, invented by the renowned "Soyer," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well known house of Crosse & Blackwell, London, from the original recipe. It is the favorite sauce in England, and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as an stimulant to the appetite and to digestion.
OPINIONS OF THE LONDON PRESS.
"We recommend our correspondent to try Mons. Soyer's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of slow and weak digestion."—[The Lancet.

REASONS FOR USING
QUERU'S
Cod Liver Oil Jelly.
The N. Y. Academy of Medicine certify that it contains 85 per cent of Pure Cod Liver Oil.
1st.—That it is an established fact that Oils, to be assimilated must be transformed into emulsion in the stomach.
2d.—That in most of the cases in which Cod Liver Oil is prescribed, the stomach of the patient is not in proper condition to make emulsive all the amount of oil taken, and that a great part, and sometimes the whole of the oil passes off undigested, and consequently inoperative. (this is easily traced in the dejections.)
3d.—That my Cod Liver Oil Jelly being a compound of oil and sugar, is an emulsion of itself as soon as in contact with a liquid; which takes place as soon as it reaches the stomach, whatever its condition may be.
4th.—That in cases when the Physician believes Cod Liver Oil to be prescribed as a specific or otherwise, my Jelly is more reliable than the crude oil, because being a solid it must remain in the stomach to undergo the natural process of digestion and assimilation, when on the contrary the liquid oil will pass off inoperative, if the stomach, as above stated, is not in a condition to make it emulsive, which always is more or less the case when the oil is indicated.
From the above consideration, the superiority of Queru's Cod Liver Oil Jelly over the crude oil, is to be acknowledged as a positive and incontestable fact. Sold by FENTON & CO., 94 Lake street.

Martyred Heads.—Hundreds of heads of hair are ruined by the use of deleterious dyes for which no scientific authority is responsible.

CRISTADORO'S EXCELSIOR DYE

on the contrary, presents the highest scientific credentials. It has been analyzed by Dr. CHILTON, who stands at the head of our Experimental Chemists, and he states in his certificate that nothing injurious enters into its composition.

THIS UNQUALIFIED APPROVAL,

added to the well known fact that it is the most reliable and the most natural dye ever manufactured, have given it [illegible] prestige, and the sales are running up from month to month, with a rapidity that severely taxes the energies and resources of the proprietor. Sold everywhere, and applied by all hair dressers. CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, New York.

JOHN D. PARK, Agent, 124 Lake street, Chicago.

Dr. McClintock's Cold and Cough Mixture is an authorized professional curative. Dr. McC. is one of the most distinguished medical men in America, and his good sense cannot be questioned. This preparation he derives from his own experience, to be a swift and positive cure for cold, cough, catarrh, influenza, and sore throat. It is popular throughout the Union. Price 25 cents. Sold by JOHN D. PARK, 124 Lake st.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The general effect of this delightful tonic, is all complaints incident to females, has given it a wide-spread celebrity among the sex. Lady invalids have been doctored and drugged overmuch. They have been victimized in health and purse by a legion of nostrum mongers; but it may be said with confidence that in this remarkable invigorant they have found exactly the stimulant adapted to their delicate organization and peculiar functional disturbances. At the dawn of womanhood, in the season of maternity, in the crisis of life, and when enfeebled by age, the gentler sex may rely upon the renovating power of this excellent and palatable preparation in every exigency. As a cure for Dyspepsia, and all complaints of the stomach and bowels, it has taken the lead of all other alternatives and tonics.

Dr. Jas. McClintock's Asthma Remedy is a "miraculous" curative. What it accomplishes is simply this. It relieves the frightful distress for breath experienced in Asthma, and so operates upon the delicate coating of the lungs and the membranes of the throat as to effect, eventually, a real cure. In whooping cough it is invaluable. Price 50 cents.

Sold by JOHN D. PARK, 124 Lake-st.

Those who are Curious to witness the wonderful perfection to which A. Oswaldt (late manager at Batchelor's, N. Y.) has brought the manufacture of Wigs and Toupees, are invited to visit his Wig and Hair dying Rooms, at No. 100 Lake street, and examine these productions of art. No scrutiny can detect their [illegible] from the natural when adjusted to the head.

THE GREATEST WONDER OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative.

Says the St. Louis, Mo., Democrat: Below we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. [illegible]

BATH, MAINE, Jan. 10, 1858.

Professor O. J. Wood & Co.—Gentlemen: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite grey, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the grey or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two years, has used it with the same effect. The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am truly yours A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure. FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved. WM. DYER.

BROOKFIELD, Jan. 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming grey, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit. Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

CHICAGO, March [illegible], 1860.

Present—His Honor the Mayor and Aldermen [illegible]

The minutes of the proceedings of the last three meetings were read and approved.

Ald. Long presented the following report of the Board of Water Commissioners [illegible]

WATER COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE, Chicago, Ill., February 20th, 1860.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago, in Common Council assembled:

The Water Commissioners [illegible] their [illegible] Annual Report, and as it is [illegible] them at this season of the year, [illegible] the whole of the year 1859.

The works are in good order, [illegible] respects, financially as otherwise, in good.

ADDITIONS TO THE WORKS IN 1859.

The principal expenditure during the year in the way of enlargement has been in extending the water pipes. [illegible] inches internal diameter; but mainly and in nearly equal quantities of four and six-inch [illegible] In the extension is included a wrought iron pipe of ten inches diameter, laid in the bed of the North branch of the [illegible] river at Wabansia avenue.

The total amount of money expended for the year amounts to $77,443.60,—and includes, beside the water pipe laid as above stated, the completion of the North and West Reservoir Buildings, sundry additions at the engine house, chiefly of matters connected with the new engine, two permanent sheds for the storage of a year's supply of coal, and a wall at the edge of the lake basin.

DETAILED STATEMENT OF PIPE LAID.

The amount of pipe laid during 1859, as already stated, is large. The amount laid of each size of pipe are given below:

10 inch pipe	[illegible] feet.
6 " "	[illegible]
4 " "	[illegible]
[illegible]	[illegible]

The total amount of distributing pipe laid in 1859, 66,270 feet, or 12 miles and 2,310 feet.

Of the total amount there was laid in each division of the city as follows:

North Division	28,774 feet.
West "	24,330 "
South "	13,065 "
Total	66,270 feet.

WHOLE AMOUNT OF PIPES LAID IN THE CITY.

The whole amount of main laid is	26,076 feet.
" " distribution pipe laid	422,476 "
Total of all sizes of pipe laid	448,552 feet.
or 84 miles and 5,032 feet.

During the last two years the demands upon the Board for the extension of the pipes have been very numerous and urgent, and a very large amount was laid in that time, amounting to 34 miles of distribution pipe. It is not expected that it will be found necessary to lay much pipe during the present year, and it is the intention of the Commissioners to confine the extension to cases of positive need.

PUMPING WORK.

The pumping power, as is generally known, consists of two large engines. One, the smaller, has been in use since the opening of the works. The other, generally termed the new engine, was first used in August, 1857. But one engine is used at a time.

The smaller engine has been in use on 143 days, pumping on an average a little less than 15 hours daily; but during December, when the great waste of water from hydrants by running to keep them from freezing the average running time for the month was 17½ hours per day.

The new engine has been used on 223 days, and with an average running time per day for the year of 12⅞ hours. Its highest average running time for any one month was 14 hours per day.

The amount of water pumped by the two engines during the year as stated by the engineer at about 1,415,000,000, an average per day of 3,877,117 gallons.

No large changes have been made at the pumping works the last year. The building, including the tower, has been kept in good repair, and made more convenient by the addition of an office for the use of the engineers. The standing column within the tower has been increased in height ten feet, causing thus some increase to the head of water.

The new engine, with its two boilers, is in thorough working order. The old engine may require some repairs during the year, not large in amount. The old boiler is being put in complete repair, and is now nearly ready for use. The coal sheds, whose erection during the year has already been noticed, preserve the coal in good order, and prevent its waste.

LAKE BASIN AND ITS PROTECTING CRIB WORK.

Early last summer the basin was dredged out, and some 5,000 yards of sand were removed and placed on the engine house lot. An opening in the crib work which has heretofore existed was then closed up, and, over the whole, protection stone was filled in to replace what had been washed away or had sunk. It is now in good condition.

THE NEW RESERVOIR BUILDINGS.

The North and West Reservoir Buildings, described in our last annual report, and then stated to be nearly finished and in use, have been in use the whole year. We have discovered no defects in them, and the work on them throughout appears to be well done.

THE OLD RESERVOIR BUILDING, ADAMS STREET.

Such changes have been made in this, the South Division Reservoir, during the year, that the tank is now supported in the same way as in the other two. [illegible]

[illegible]

FIRE HYDRANTS.

The Commissioners have made comparatively large expenditures in increasing the number of fire hydrants, and every proper means to make the works useful for the extinguishing of fires, 105 hydrants have been added to the number reported last year, and 3 old ones replaced by as many new. Those hydrants used are all of the patent of Mr. Edward Hamilton, of this city, and manufactured here.

Of the 388 fire hydrants now attached to the works, rather more than one-half were put up during the last two years.

WATER COCKS.

During the year Water Cocks have been put in in different parts of the city, connecting directly with the River or Lake, or Sewers in their vicinity, so that the different districts of pipe could be more rapidly and effectually drained of the water. [illegible]

FISH IN THE PIPES.

The citizens, during the winter, have for several times been annoyed by the presence of small fish in the pipes. [illegible]

EXTENDING THE INLET PIPE INTO THE LAKE.

The matter of extending the inlet pipe into the lake for a long distance, with the object of obtaining water always free from impurities, has had the attention of the Board for a long time, and still has. [illegible]

INCOME OF THE WORKS FOR 1859.

The income of the works for the year has been as large as we anticipated by us, and gives a sufficiently large excess over the cost of repairs and operation, and the interest on the water loan bonds issued. The total income for the year was $123,600.77, and greater by [illegible] than in 1858.

Income from Water rents and assessments	$122,948.26
Profits tapping distributing pipes	652.51
Total revenue for 1859	$123,600.77

EXPENSES AND INTEREST, 1859.

Repairs and all operating expenses	$42,904.45
Interest on bonds issued and all interest	65,903.03
	$108,809.48

Excess of revenue over interest and expenses, 1859. $14,791.29

REVENUE AND EXPENSES FROM COMMENCEMENT OF OPERATIONS INTO THE WORKS.

Total revenue from commencement of operating the works	$481,672.75
Total expenses and interest for same time	458,977.71
Total excess of revenue	$22,695.04

Water was first supplied from the pipes early in 1854. That year and the next three was a deficiency of revenue, the deficiency gradually approximating to the expense, but the deficiency of the two years amounted in the aggregate to $15,632.03. The revenue of the years 1856 and 1857 paid the interest and expenses, and about extinguished this old deficiency, since which time the revenue has continued to exceed the expenses, and to accumulate in amount, the total excess now being, as above stated, $22,695.04.

UNPAID WATER TAXES.

On the first day of January there remained unpaid of all water rates for all time previous to May 1st, 1859, $34,841.70. A portion of this from buildings being burnt or removed without the knowledge of the office, and those including more or less of buildings of an old and nearly worthless character, will not be collected. Most of it will be collected eventually.

BUILDINGS SUPPLIED WITH WATER.

During 1859 the buildings for the first time then supplied with water amounted to 1159. The total number of buildings supplied with water in each Division we give below:

North Division	2295
West "	2512
South "	3942
Total of buildings connected with the pipes	8749

In this enumeration any distinct building, no matter how large, as the Tremont House and stores and offices underneath, or the Metropolitan Hall building entire, is reckoned as one building only. A more satisfactory statement of the different establishments taxed for water is to be found in the table prepared for that purpose, and appended to the Secretary's report, which accompanies this.

MEANS BY WHICH THE WATER WORKS HAVE BEEN BUILT, AND BY WHICH THE MATERIALS AND MACHINERY ON HAND FOR REPAIRS AND ADDITIONS, AND SUPPLIES ON HAND FOR OPERATING, HAVE BEEN PURCHASED.

The means for the construction of the Water Works, and for the purchase of materials, machinery and supplies, as above, have been derived as follows:

" " —7 ⅌ ct	47,000.00

Ald. [illegible], of Committee on Claims, offered the following:

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago, in Common Council assembled:

Your Committee on Claims to whom was referred the petition of Thomas Prout, asking for remission of fine imposed upon him at the June Term of the Recorder's Court of $100, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report that on examination of the case, we find that he is poor and unable to pay so large a fine as $100. He served out his sixty days in Bridewell, which does not seem convinced him of the error of his ways, and he promises good conduct. [illegible]

Ordered, That the City Comptroller be authorized to remit the fine of one hundred dollars against Thomas Prout (and the costs) on the payment of the sum of forty dollars.

Report concurred in by ayes and noes the whole Board of Aldermen present voting in the affirmative.

Also of same committee the following:

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago, in Common Council assembled:

Your Committee on Claims, to whom was referred the petition of Woodman Brothers, et. al., asking that a portion of their rent of stalls in the North Market be refunded them, on account of the burning of said building, and the consequent damage sustained by them, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report that they deem it just and equitable that a portion of the rent, paid by them for rent of stalls in the North Market, be refunded.

We would therefore recommend the passage of the following order:

Ordered, that the City Controller be hereby authorized to refund to petitioners one half of the quarter's rent paid by them, extending from April to July, 1859.

Also, of same Committee, to whom was referred petition of Geo. M. Gray and others, asking that lots and portion of lots 1, 2 and 3, in block 4, Fort Dearborn Addition, be restored to them. Reported that in the Committee's judgment the property of the petitioners, therefore reported adversely.

Report concurred in.

Alderman [illegible], of Committee on Harbor and Bridges, offered the following:

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago, in Common Council assembled:

Your Committee on Harbor and Bridges, to whom was referred the petition of Isaac H. Burch and others, asking the Common Council to contain an Ordinance passed July 20th, 1857, vacating the South thirty feet of East Carroll street, and widening alley through Block 14 to the width of 40 feet, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report:

That we find an ordinance passed July 20th, 1857, vacating, as set forth by petitioners, thirty feet of Carroll street, (to be taken from the South side of said street.) And also widening the alley through Block 14 thirty feet. Provided "The owners of property in said Block 14 shall, [illegible] year from the passage of said act, cede to the City of Chicago thirty feet from the South side of all the lots bounded by the North line of said alley way. [illegible]" [illegible] street is "legally" completed, the end thereof fronting on the river shall remain vested in the owners of lots fronting on that part of Carroll street, "as a compensation for the reduction in width of said street as before provided." Your Committee have failed to discover any advantage or benefit secured to the city by lessening the width of Carroll street, and widening the alley to the same extent.

And in pursuance of the foregoing Ordinance, a Deed was executed by Mayor Wentworth, in behalf of the city, conveying thirty feet, so taken from the South side of Carroll street and lying between the Chicago River and [illegible] street, leaving the remainder (fifty feet) to be equally divided between the property owners on each side of the street. Thus securing to said owners a valuable "River Lot," eighty feet front upon the river and [illegible] deep, without receiving any equivalent therefor. If the parties interested in, and owning property in said Block four are desire to diminish the width of Carroll street and add the same amount to the alley, your Committee see no objection to so doing. Provided, the city receives a fair equivalent for that portion vacated which lies between [illegible] street and the river.

An order to repeal an ordinance vacating a part of Carroll street, and for widening alley in Block 14, was passed Dec. 6th, 1858, which order we reported by the Mayor, as your Committee understand, on the ground that such repeal would conflict with a former ordinance, vacating parts of East Water, Old North Water and East Carroll streets. On examination, we find that the Ordinance sought to be repealed was passed July 20th, 1857, and more than a year after the passage of the said Ordinance fixing dock lines and vacating parts of East Water, Old North Water and East Carroll streets—and the repeal does not conflict therewith, nor materially disturb, any previous settlement of or legislation upon the question of dock lines. We are also satisfied that the said Ordinance of Dec. 6th, 1858, was irregular and without authority, and therefore carried with it no power to convey, or was, as we are advised by the City Attorney, so as to confirm the former proceedings of the Council in relation to this matter, would be injurious to the best interests of the city, inasmuch as it would transfer to private individuals a valuable "River Lot," worth some fifteen or twenty thousand dollars, without any fair equivalent therefor.

We therefore report adversely to the prayer of the petitioners.

Report concurred in.

Also, of the same, the following:

Ordered, That the Common Council do now elect by ballot, three reputable, discreet and disinterested freeholders of the city of Chicago, whose duty it shall be to ascertain the damages and recompense due the owners, respectively, of such real estate as shall be taken and appropriated for the extension of the east half of Dyer avenue, 33 feet wide, from the Archer road to the South Branch of the Chicago river, in a straight line, and to correspond with the east half of Dyer avenue south of the Archer road; the intention being to make a street sixty-six (66) feet wide, the west half of which shall consist of the east thirty-three (33) feet of lot seven, (7) of block one, (1) in section twenty-nine, (29) township thirty-nine, (39) north range, fourteen, (14) east, dedicated for a highway on the plat of Healey's subdivision of said lot seven, of block one, and of the east thirty-three feet of lot one, block one, of the said section twenty-nine, proposed to be opened for a highway by the town of South Chicago, in accordance with an order for the survey thereof, passed February 13, 1860, and at the same time assess the amount of such damages, together with the cost of the proceedings upon the real estate deemed benefitted by the improvement in proportion as nearly as may be to the benefits resulting to each parcel of ground respectively.

The order was passed, and the Council proceeded to the election of Commissioners hereunder.

On the first ballot, C. N. Holden, Reuben Taylor, and Wm. Wayman received each fourteen votes, and were declared elected.

Ald. Botsford, of Committee on Fire and Water, to whom was referred an order to pay rent of office for the Calef Engineer, reported an order to pay the same.

Laid over.

Also, of same Committee, to whom was referred petition of V. D. Watkins, to be allowed to move wooden building in the fire limits, reported in favor of the same.

Report concurred in.

Ald. Ward, of Committee on Schools, offered the following:

Your Committee on Schools, to whom was referred the report of Board of Education, having had the same under consideration, are of the opinion that the orders asked for in part should be granted; they therefore ask for the passage of the following orders:

Ordered, That the school agent be, and he is hereby directed to collect all money belonging to the school fund and loaned now, upon personal security, with as little delay as possible.

2d. The school agent is hereby required to collect and call in all sums now loaned, whether on personal or real estate securities, where the interest is unpaid.

3d. That he collect as soon as possible all sums loaned on real mortgage and all sums loaned on property not double the value of the sum loaned as required by law.

Report concurred in and ordered passed.

Also of same committee, to whom was referred report of the school agent for the four months ending May 31, 1859, returned the same and recommended that it be placed on file. Report concurred in.

Laid over.

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago, in Common Council assembled:

Your Committee on Streets and Alleys, South Division, to whom was referred remonstrance of George Manierre and others, against building a horse railroad on Randolph street, having had the same under advisement, beg leave to report, that the remonstrants are too late, after the line has been built and in operation, and therefore is beyond such action by this Council, as contemplated by the remonstrants. Upon the objections made by the remonstrants, your committee differ entirely with them in the opinion that the action of the Council was oppressive to property holders, or such as injury to them as to require any further action by this Council. Your committee therefore ask to be discharged from any further action upon this subject. Respectfully submitted.

Laid over and ordered published.

Ald. Abbott of same committee to whom was referred report of street commissioner on sidewalk not constructed on west side Dearborn street from Archer Road to South, reported the usual order for its construction forthwith. Report concurred in and order passed.

Also of same Committee to whom was referred petition of J. G. Wicker and others to be allowed to pave South Water street from Dearborn street to Clark street, reported in favor of the same. Laid over.

Ald. Carpenter, of Committee on Streets and Alleys, N. D., to whom was referred petition of Nash & Sykes to be allowed to erect a scale in front of their store on North Water street, reported an order granting the same during the pleasure of the Common Council provided it be done in such a manner as not to obstruct the street. Report concurred in and order passed.

Ald. Taft, of Committee on Streets and Alleys, W. D., to whom was referred petition Geo. C. Morton and others, for sidewalk on east side Clinton street, from Van Buren st. to Jackson street, reported the usual order for the same six feet wide. Report concurred in and order passed.

Ald. Reno, of same committee presented the following:

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Chicago, in Common Council assembled:

Your Committee on Streets and Alleys of the West Division, to whom was referred the petition of J. H. Mellinger and others, for the opening of Walnut street, through block 40, Sec. 7, 39, 14 E., having had the same under consideration, are of the opinion that the prayer of the petitioners should be granted; they therefore ask for the passage of the following:

Ordered, That when the sum of ten dollars shall have been paid into the city treasury, the City Surveyor shall proceed forthwith to survey, mark out, plat, and record in the book provided for that purpose, (showing particularly the proposed improvement, and the real estate required to be taken therefor,) the opening of Walnut street, through block forty-eight, (48) of Canal Trustee's Subdivision of section seven, (7) township thirty-nine, (39) range fourteen (14) east; to correspond to and be of the same width as that portion of said Walnut street already opened west of said block forty-eight, (48) is to correspond with and to be of the same width as that portion of said Walnut street already opened west of said block forty-eight (48).

Ordered, That when a plat of the survey has been returned to his office, the City Clerk shall give ten days' notice, in the corporation newspaper, that the Common Council of the city of Chicago intend to appropriate and take so much land as shall be necessary for the opening of Walnut street, through block forty-eight, (48) of Canal Trustee's Subdivision of section seven, (7) township thirty-nine, (39) range fourteen (14) east, to correspond to and be of the same width as that portion of the said Walnut street already opened west of said block forty-eight (48).

Report concurred in and orders passed.

Ald. Taft, of Committee on Local Assessments, to whom was referred communication and ordinance for reassessing property for curbing and filling Canal street, recommended that the ordinance be passed. Laid over.

Also, by the same the following:

To the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Chicago in Common Council assembled:

Ordered, That when a plat of the survey has been returned to his office, the City Clerk shall give ten days' notice, in the Corporation New paper, that the Common Council of the city of Chicago intend to appropriate and take so much land as shall be necessary for the widening and extending of Chicago avenue, in a straight line, and to correspond with that part of Chicago avenue east of Larrabee street, from Larrabee street west to the North branch of the Chicago River.

The demand for Flour was less active to-day, but owing to the limited offerings the market was firm, with sales at $5@5.25 for good to choice Spring extras. Wheat was dull and prices declined 1½@2c; but towards the close, owing to favorable advices from New York the feeling improved and the market closed firm at the outside figures. The transactions were limited at $1.03½@1.04½ for old receipts, and $1.05 for new receipts No. 2 Spring in store. There was a good demand for choice lots for seed, and several sales were made at $1.90@1.96. Corn was in good supply and the market for old receipts was dull and ½@1c lower, sales ranging from 44½@45c in store. New receipts, however, were in good demand and firm, with sales of No. 1 at 46c, and Rejected at 42c. There was an active inquiry by shippers for No 2 and Rejected on track, and liberal transactions took place at 44½@45c for the former, and 44@44½c for the latter. Oats were in limited demand and rather dull—sales ranging from 36@37½c on track, and 33c for new receipts No. 1 in store. Rye steady. Barley dull, with a strong downward tendency. Highwines steady. Alcohol 41@42c. Provisions quiet. A lot of 500 brls Mess Pork sold to-day at $16.75, to be delivered at Milwaukee. Nothing doing in Cut Meats. Lard quiet.

FIRST CORN BY CANAL.—The boat Adelia, Capt. Cooley, from Joliet, arrived in the River to-day—the first canal corn received here this season. The corn was offered for sale on 'Change, but as it was not strictly prime it was not sold.

To-morrow or Monday there will be four or five arrivals from the Illinois River, when we may expect to see some beautiful samples of the great staple of the valley of the Illinois.

ST. LOUIS, March 8.—The trade in flour was active to-day at $5.75@6.75 for city superfine to extra, and $5.60@6.00 for country superfine, with light stocks of both. The millers sell about as fast as they manufacture it. The provision trade is good, with considerable sales of Pork to-day, and the best demand for choice Lard of any day yet. Pork holders do not offer their stocks pressingly, and the stock of smoked meats on the market is less than usual at this season of the year. Nor is there much choice Lard offered. A good deal of pork, hay, &c., is going South; pork freight was reduced to 70c ℔ bbl to-day, other freights as before. Wheat—with small receipts, the market was firmer. Sales of 109 bags spring at $1.30; 100 do private; 264 do fair fall at $1.30@1.32; 480 do prime do at $1.40; 36 do white $1.42; 351 do at $1.45, and 550 do private. Corn—in good demand and firm; sales of 200 bags damp yellow at 51c; 542 do mixed at 54c; 3,000 bags yellow mixed white 55@56c, mostly delivered; 1,260 do mixed white at 56½@57c; 1,230 do white at 58@59c, and 133 do choice white at 60c, on board—all in new gunnies. Oats—demand fair, and market slightly firmer; sales of 200 bags light at 50c; 225 do at 51@52c; 500 do at 52½c on board; 258 do at 53½c delivered; 200 do at 53c; 525 do at 54c, bags included. Barley—steady demand and firm; sales of 17 bags spring at 90c; 124 do fall at $1, and 96 do in lots at 1.01, bags returned. Whisky—in good demand, with a slight improvement; sales of 260 brls in lots at 20c, and 22 do at the market. Potatoes—sale of 154 bags pinkeyes at 65c, and 40 do Neshannocks at 70c per bu. Hay—firmer with a good demand; sales of 100 bales private; 60 do at 95c, and 130 do at 100c. Seeds—sale of 32 bags timothy at $2.40 per bu.

NEW ORLEANS, March 7—P. M.—The demand for Flour is quite moderate, and but little doing for export; prices are drooping, and Superfine ranges from $6.25 to $6.50. Corn, under large arrivals, is very dull, and prices have declined to 70c. Whiskey is dull, and prices merely nominal at 21@21½c for Rectified, and 22½@23c for Raw. Sugar dull, but not quotably lower; fair to fully fair 6½@7c. Molasses has further declined, and is dull at 35@36c for choice. Coffee firm at 13c for prime Rio. No change in Bacon; the demand is moderate. Mess Pork quiet at $18.25@18.50. Lard dull, without change; bbl 10½c. Sight Exchange on New York has advanced to par. Hay $32.00 per ton.

MOVEMENT OF PROVISIONS AT CHICAGO.—The Cincinnati Gazette of yesterday, says:

The movements of hog products at Chicago this season possess a good deal of interest—showing, as they do, the direction that the products of the Northwest are taking. Railroad freights have been relatively lower from western points to the Eastern seaboard than from Cincinnati, and products at the West have been relatively lower at the West than here. Consequently the largest proportion of the consumptive demand from Baltimore, and other places, has been supplied from the Northwest, thus drawing supplies from a section of country that formerly shipped largely to New Orleans. While this movement has interfered with our trade somewhat, for the time being, on the Eastern seaboard, it leaves the Southern field more clear, and in this direction, therefore, the best market is found at present. The diversion of trade to which we refer is shown, in part, by the receipts of hog products at Chicago from January 1st to March 5th, this year and last:

	1860.	1859.
Pork, brls	[illegible]	[illegible]
Cut meats, lbs.	[illegible]	[illegible]
Lard, lbs	[illegible]	[illegible]

The exports for the same time compare thus:

	1860.	1859.
Pork, brls	[illegible]	[illegible]
Cut meats, lbs.	[illegible]	[illegible]
Lard, lbs	[illegible]	[illegible]

In these latter figures, which we take from the PRESS AND TRIBUNE, there is probably some mistake. The receipts of cut meats, as we have seen, show an increase of 2,400,000, while the exports show a falling off of over 1,500,000. This, after allowing for the falling off in the number of hogs packed, cannot be accounted for, unless heavy stocks are held at Chicago. This is said not to be the case. However, the receipts as given above show that the trade has been diverted from the Mississippi river, over railroads to the East, and the supplies of the Northwest have been drawn upon earlier and more largely than in former years.

The figures given above are exactly the same as the returns from the various railroad offices; but it must be observed that a much greater proportion of the hog product of the season just closed, was sent forward before the 1st of January than in the season previous. In fact, Cut Meats were shipped off as soon as ready, some of it even while green; so that the market all the season was quite bare; whereas, in 1858-9, the shipments were made later. But our railroad returns are very unsatisfactory. For instance, this year a very large amount of Cut Meats have been put into pickle, and shipped in barrels, owing, probably, to the low price of cooperage. We have no doubt whatever but these meats have been returned to us as "Pork," thus tending to swell the figures to "$1,039," against 27,566 in 1859. Everybody knows that we have shipped less barrelled pork this year than last.

A BREAK-UP IN THE NEW YORK EXCHANGE.—The provision dealers and brokers of New York have withdrawn from the New York Corn Exchange, and they now meet in the Merchant's Exchange on Wall street. The cause of the rupture was insufficient rooms in which to meet.

NEW YORK—March 7—Receipts, 3,628 bbls flour; 6,765 bu corn; 1,975 bu oats; 712 bu rye; 770 pkgs pork; 196 pkgs bacon; 606 pkgs lard; 231 dressed hogs.

CINCINNATI—March 8—The Gazette says:

There was a good deal of inquiry for bulk shoulders, and 100,000 lbs sold at 6¼, and buyers were pretty free with offers of 6¼. Sides could have been sold at 8½c for light, and 8½c for heavy.

Bacon did not receive much attention, and the sales were light at 7½@9½ for shoulders and sides. About 800 bbls mess pork sold at $17.25@17.37, and for choice brands there were more buyers than sellers at these figures. Nothing done in barrel lard. Holders are not pressing it, as they look with confidence for a pretty heavy foreign demand.

Flour was in fair demand and firm at $5.50@5.55 for superfine. The exports were in excess of the receipts. Whisky was feeble at 19½c. Wheat advanced 2c per bushel, closing at $1.30@1.33 for prime white, and $1.25@1.28 for do red. Barley is firmer, with an improved demand, but buyers are not willing to pay 80c for prime. Very good grades of Fall sold at 76@77c. Corn steady. Oats dull. Coffee was buoyant at 13@13½c for common to choice. Molasses 41@42c, and Sugar 7½@8½c. There is a good jobbing trade, but business in the large way is dull. The receipts of leading articles to-day were:

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Secretary of War to-day communicated to the House, in compliance with a resolution, the report of the Art Commission, who recommend an appropriation of $167,000, to be expended for statuary and pictures for the adornment of the Capitol. They suggest a preference to be given to American artists, and that the embellishments should be of a purely national character. In this connection they do not speak in complimentary terms of the ancient subjects chosen for the wall pictures of the committee rooms. They say that, as a general principle, the true method of procuring designs for statuary and pictures is to invite competition.

The receipts of the Treasury during the past week were $1,706,000, including Treasury notes. The drafts paid were over four millions of dollars. The amount of drafts issued were nearly $3,798,000. The reduction from the amount on hand on the previous week was $1,030,000. The amount subject to draft was $477,300.

WASHINGTON, March 10th.

At the conference of Opposition members from Pennsylvania last night in regard to the tariff, they agreed to recommend to the Committee on Ways and Means to fix specific duties on iron at the following rates: On pig iron at $7 per ton; Railroad iron, $12 per ton; common bar, $15 per ton; fine bar, one cent per pound; Berlin iron, 1½c per pound; Russia sheet, 1½c per pound. These are the principal descriptions, though scraps and other minor kinds are provided for. This proposition has not yet been submitted to the Ways and Means Committee, and may be modified before being presented in the new bill to the House.

It is probable the Tariff bill will be reported about the middle of next week, before all the appropriations are submitted, to give it a proper position in the order of business.

Twenty million dollars of Treasury notes granted by the last Congress will expire on the 1st of July, and the House will not authorize a new issue, but require them to be funded. It is now proposed to connect this loan with the Tariff bill as the revenue derived from that service, after defraying the regular expenses of Government, will be applied to the extension of the indebtedness, there being no other resource. The Senate, who resisted before, but will yield now, may compel some concession on the Tariff.

S. C. Boyington, appointed Clerk in the Stationery Room of the House of Representatives, is the person announced as having absconded with money. He never served a day in office, but a week or two ago he obtained from his confidential friends nearly $200,000 worth of transferable Post Office certificates made payable to him. The report is that he raised upon it in New York about 60 cents on the dollar, and left for Europe. At any rate, he has not returned here. He has been serving the Administration for several years in one Department. The Government loses nothing by him.

Telegraphic Extension.

QUEBEC, March 10.—Parliament last night voted $8,000 per voyage to the Canadian steamers and $10,000 per year for a telegraph to Belle Island.

It is projected to run a submarine cable from some point on the St. Lawrence at or below the present terminus of the Montreal Telegraph Lines, to a point on the Labrador shore of the Straits of Bell Isle. The channel at the selected place is so narrow that all vessels passing through the Straits pass within half a mile of the main land. The extension of the telegraph will reduce communication between Europe and America to about six days, as the length of the proposed cable is some 500 miles, or nearly two day's full steaming distance. The line is to be completed during the ensuing summer. The Associated Press of the country will as usual have reliable arrangements for procuring the earliest intelligence by this route.

From Central America.

NEW ORLEANS, March 9th.—The Picayune's Belize (Honduras) correspondent, writing under date of the 17th ult., says that Seymour, the Ex-Governor, had departed for England, and that Beckley, the Ex-Secretary, had been appointed Lieut. Governor of Dominique.

The bark Wm. O. Alden, from Belize, for New York, was lost on the Yucatan shore on the 1st ult. The Indians burnt the vessel and cargo. The crew had arrived at Belize.

THE HEAD OF BRAN.

For an account of this British worthy, see The Mabinogion, Lady Charlotte Guest's translation. He was the son of Llyr, King of Britain, and said to be the first convert to Christianity in these islands. Hence his title, "Bendigeid, the Blessed." Taliesin, the bard, the radiant brow was one of the seven princes to whom it was committed to carry the head to its resting-place.

The Head was buried, looking towards France, in the Gwynvyn, or White Mount, site of the Tower of London. And this was called "the third goodly concealment of the isles of Britain;" for no invasion from across the sea came to this island while the Head was in that concealment. Arthur, "the blameless king," had it disinterred, refusing, in his pride, to trust to the charm. And this the Triads term the third ill-fated disclosure of the isles of Britain, invasion and general disaster following it.

I.

When the Head of Bran
Was firm on British shoulders,
God made a man!
Cried all beholders.

Steel could not resist
The weight his arm would rattle;
He, with naked fist,
Has brain'd a knight in battle.

He march'd on the foe,
And never counted numbers;
Foreign widows know
The hosts he sent to slumbers.

As a street you scan,
That's tower'd by the steeple,
So the Head of Bran
Rose o'er his people.

II.

"Death's my neighbor,"
Quoth Bran the Blest;
"Christian labor
Brings Christian rest.
From the trunk sever
The Head of Bran,
That which never
Has bent to man!

"That which never
To men has bow'd,
Shall live ever
To shame the shroud:
Shall live ever
To face the foe;
Sever it, sever,
And with one blow.

"Be it written,
That all I wrought
Was for Britain,
In deed and thought;
Be it written,
That, while I die,
Glory to Britain!
Is my last cry.

"Glory to Britain!"
Death echoes me round.
Glory to Britain!
The world shall resound.
Glory to Britain!
In ruin and fall,
Glory to Britain!
Is heard over all."

III.

Burn, Sun, down the sea!
Bran lies low with thee.

Burst, Morn, from the main!
Bran so shall rise again.

Blow, Wind, from the field!
Bran's Head is the Briton's shield.

Beam, Star, in the west!
Bright burns the Head of Bran the Blest.

IV.

Crimson-footed, like the stork,
From the great ruts of slaughter,
Warriors of the Golden Torque,
Cross the lifting water.
Princes seven, enchaining hands,
Bear the live head homeward.
Lo! it speaks, and still commands:
Gazing far out foamward.

Fiery words of lightning sense
Down the hollows thunder;
Forest hostels know not whence
Comes the speech and wonder.
City-castles on the steep,
Where the faithful Seven
House at midnight, hear in sleep
Laughter under heaven.

Lilies swimming on the mere,
In the castle shadow,
Under draw their heads, and Fear
Walks the misty meadow.
Tremble not! it is not Death
Pledging dark espousal;
'Tis the Head of endless breath,
Challenging carousal!

Brim the horn! a health is drunk,
Now, that shall keep going:
Life is but the pebble sunk;
Deeds the circle growing.
Fill, and pledge the Head of Bran!
While his lead they follow,
Long shall heads in Britain plan
Speech Death cannot swallow!

GEORGE MEREDITH.

An Army Reviewed by a Lion.

The author of a recent work on Algeria relates the following incident which occurred while marching with a body of French troops on their way to attack the Kabyles.

We had ridden carelessly forward, admiring the view, or speculating on the game to be found in these mountain passes, when the sudden halt and the unslinging of carbines startled us. Rushing past the rear files, we galloped to the front just in time to prevent the sergeant who led the advance firing at a noble lion, who advanced toward the same path which we were pursuing, and halted abruptly at our view. He had evidently come from a different direction to the one we were pursuing, and was making to the very pile of the mountains whose somber color had excited our curiosity. Five minutes later and we should not have seen him; but as it happened, there he stood, evidently very much astonished at thus plumping suddenly on so large a party. Were we to fire, we should doubtless either kill or mortally wound the animal. In the first case all would be well, and we should be the richer by a lion's skin; in the second place, we should be sure to lose one or more men, and it was a responsibility the young officer in command would not assume. Hastily giving the order to unsling carbines, he closed up the men with some difficulty, for the horses were very restive. In case the lion showed a disposition to attack, all were to face toward him, and it was to be hoped that the general discharge would prove mortal. If disposed to let us do so, we were to pass him quietly.

I have often heard that the lion by day in no way resembles the same animal by night. During the darkness, seeking his prey where he can find it, he will attack any thing with the greatest ferocity; but during the daytime, it being his proper period for sleep, and being, besides, generally gorged with food, he seldom attacks man. In the present instance, I had little confidence in the effect of our fire, for our horses, as their riders approached their dreaded enemy, became more and more alarmed and restive.

The lion was, doubtless, the one I had heard roar in the distance the previous night, and he had been to the other side seeking for food among the douars of the native tribes near Teniest, from which he was now returning to his den.

Our files well closed up, we neared the lion, who showed no symptoms of fear; gazing at us, not savagely, but apparently with great curiosity. Then he moved his tail to and fro, like a cat; and as we neared him he deliberately sat down on his hind-quarters, looking, then, for all the world, like a huge colored Newfoundland dog. Just as we ranged up with him, passing by in single file—the horses' heads and tails were together—he opened his huge mouth with a mighty yawn, uttering, as he did so, a sound between a heavy sigh and a growl. This he did without rising, and in a most sleepy manner, as though he were supremely indifferent to our presence.

All this time our horses were visibly excited, and my own, a jet black Syrian arab, which had carried me many a mile over the plains of Wallachia and Roumelia, and who, from his intense love of mischief and fighting, I had long since christened "Bashi-Bazouk," was now completely cowed, and though walking at a very slow pace, his black coat was all white with foam. I was not fifteen paces from the lion, and could not resist the fancy that seized me to rein in and look at him. Trembling in every limb, my horse obeyed me, and as the rear files of our escort moved past, I contemplated the noble brute. He was a splendid male, and of the color called by the natives the "black lion," and which, they say, is the most fierce and terrible of all. He seemed sleepy and quiet enough just then, and did not even look at me. The jangling of the men's arms appeared to catch his attention, and it was indeed but a moment's space that was allowed me for contemplation, for a slight move on his part caused my horse to bound aside so as almost to unhorse me, and when I recovered my seat and my power over my frightened steed, the sleepy fellow had deliberately lain down, and, resting his noble head on two mighty paws, he followed us with his eyes as we moved slowly away.

THE ELLITHORPE QUARTZ PULVERIZER.

This machine is the result of a long and active experience in producing machinery for the crushing and pulverizing of hard rock, and minerals of all descriptions. The extensive quartz fields of California, Australia, New and Old Mexico, as well as the new discoveries in Kansas, have as yet produced but a very small portion of gold, and even that, under an expense that has made quartz mining almost universally a ruinous, if not disastrous. Every conceivable machine has been brought into active use, and each in its turn has failed to accomplish an amount of labor sufficient to warrant the expenditure.

The productive properties of these discarded machines, the immense power required to work them, and their original cost, has rendered them unavailable. The time has now come when the miner everywhere is seeking for some more competent labor-saving machinery; something that will cost less, weigh less, take less power, and do more work.

In introducing the "Ellithorpe Quartz Pulverizer" to the miner, we will give its actual working capacity and the principal points upon which we base our claim ...

1st.—It weighs only 210 pounds.
2d.—It can be easily transported to any remote place.
3d.—It is simple in construction, and no more liable to get out of repair than a common mill turning lathe, it having but two plain journals of friction.
4th.—Its pulverizing surfaces can be replaced in less than five minutes, at a cost not to exceed one dollar and fifty cents.
5th.—Each set of surfaces will pulverize ten times the amount of quartz that the same weight of metal will do on the face of the common stampers, and perform it in less than one-tenth of the time.
6th.—It does not require one-fourth the power that a common stamping mill does.
7th.—It pulverizes the rock uniformly, and to a fineness that cannot be attained with the stampers. In fact, it bears the same relation to the stamping machine, in the performance of its work, that the present flouring mill does to the old-fashioned wooden mortar.

Any kind of motive power can be attached to this mill. It requires no expense in putting up; an axe and an auger, with the labor of two men for four hours, will put it in readiness for operation.

With these advantages, we place the mill before the miner, and feel confident that his own interests will insure its universal use and adoption.

The mills will be manufactured at the well-known machine works of Samuel Mowry, Greenville, Connecticut, and nothing but the best of Salisbury and Sterling iron will be used in their construction, for this is indispensable, as no quartz mill can be durable without good material and good mechanism. The reputation of this establishment will be a sufficient guarantee for the perfection of every machine.

Letters addressed to A. C. ELLITHORPE, Chicago, Ill., or to SAMUEL MOWRY, Greenville, Conn., will receive prompt attention.

As accidents will happen even in well regulated families, it is very desirable to have some cheap and convenient way for repairing Furniture, Crockery, Toys, &c.

SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE! meets all such emergencies, and no household can afford to be without it. It is always ready and up to the sticking point. There is no longer a necessity for limping chairs, splintered veneers, headless dolls, and broken cradles. It is just the article for cone, shell and other ornamental work, so popular with ladies of refinement and taste.

This admirable preparation is used cold, being chemically held in solution, and possessing all the valuable qualities of the best cabinet-maker's Glue. It may be used in the place of ordinary mucilage, being vastly more adhesive.
